Chateau Yering Hotel, a Victorian mansion set on 250 acres, in the Yarra Valley, Victoria's premier wine region. The hotel offers 32 individually furnished five star suites and beautiful guest lounges.

From an elegant boardroom with a mahogany table for 14 to The Oak Room that can accommodate 150, Chateau Yering Hotel has the facilities you need. The superbly furnished conference rooms have an atmosphere of classic elegance, complimented by 21st century technology.

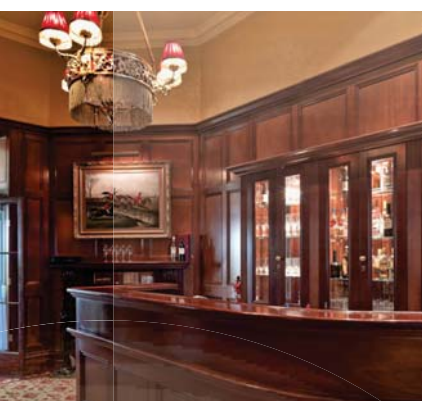

Whatever equipment you need, from whiteboards and flipcharts to podiums and audio visual, we can provide it. In addition, every suite has complimentary broadband internet and wireless internet in the conference rooms. So you'll be out of town, but never out of touch.

The lounges, which showcase fine paintings and antique furniture, are ideal for tea breaks and post conference drinks and the beautiful gardens are also at your disposal.

Our restaurants, Sweetwater Café and Eleonore's Restaurant are renowned for their innovative cuisine, which celebrates the diversity of regional produce.

From the tennis court and swimming pool on the property, to the nearby Jack Nicklaus designed golf course, recreational opportunities abound. Wine tasting and tours at the various vineyards are a fantastic way to experience the Yarra Valley.

With the world-famous Healesville Wildlife Sanctuary just 15 minutes away and the river and the hills at our doorstep, there's always something delightful to do, see and taste.

Meeting Rooms

The Oak Room

The Oak Room offers magnificent views across the Yarra Valley and its vineyards into the distant Great Dividing Range. The room has been created to make your conference a success. Choose from a banquet, classroom, cabaret, horse shoe set up etc. The Oak Room offers its own bar, bathroom and lobby – perfect for morning and afternoon teas. This space is ideal for medium to large meetings from 10 – 150 delegates.

The Library

A deluxe sitting room with open fireplace and antique furniture. Ideal for a relaxed Conference, private dining room, small board meeting or breakout room.

The Chinese Room

An elegant boardroom with a mahogany table, it is ideal for small meetings of up to 14 delegates. The Chinese Room has a floor to ceiling window that looks out onto the Heritage listed gardens, seats are high backed and cushioned and the room has its own entrance to the Sweetwater Café.
